REGENTS IN SESSION

BOARD OF NORMAL SCHOOL TAKES UP DORMITORY PROPOSITION.

SUPT. LAMKIN HERE

Speaks at Normal Assembly on Value of Education, Which Trains Children to Be Efficient.

The board of regents of the State Normal school is in session today to take up routine business and to discuss the proposition of building the dormitory, for which the money has been furnished, according to the announcement made several days ago. States Superintendent of Schools Lamkin, who is an ex-officio member of the board, is attending the meeting. This is his first session, as he was only recently appointed.

The other members of the board present were: George N. Gromer of Pattonsburg, Charles L. Mosely of Stanberry, W. H. Weightman of Mound City, True Parr of Hamilton and W. A. Blagg of Maryville.

State Superintendent Lamkin gave a talk at the assembly of the Normal this morning. He said:

"It is the purpose of the teacher not merely to train children in books, but to teach them to be efficient individuals. Children should be taught to mix with and converse with others, and to do so in a sensible manner. It is not merely what we learn from books that makes us efficient and successful, but it is the things that we are taught in connection with school life. Personality and judgment are essential to welfare and success in life. Through our personality we succeed in business and influence others as we go about our individual callings."

Mr. Blagg spoke at assembly on the value of continually renewing the good resolutions which we make on the first of January. He said that it was a principle of physics that if there were no forces acting upon a bullet or cannon ball that was fired it would continue to move in a straight line. He compared the new year's resolutions to the bullet. He said that if there were no diverting forces, our New Year's resolutions would be kept. The fact that it was necessary to renew or make again the resolution on the second of January was emphasized.

TOMORROW, ALL SAINTS' DAY

Special Services Held at Both Catholic Churches—Thursday All Souls' Day.

Tomorrow is All Saints' Day, one of the great feast days of the Catholic church. It is a holy day of obligation and masses will be held at both Catholic churches in Maryville.

At St. Patrick's church the first mass will be held at 7 o'clock for the accommodation of those who work on that day. The second mass—a high mass—will be said at 10:30 o'clock.

At St. Mary's church masses will be said at 7 o'clock and at 10 o'clock, the last mass being a high mass.

Thursday is universally observed in the Catholic churches as All Souls' Day. On this day, as on Christmas, a priest may say three masses for the dead. Services will be held in the chapel at St. Patrick's cemetery on Thursday morning if the weather permits. Jitneys will be on hand at the church to convey all those desiring to attend the services at the cemetery. At St. Mary's church the masses on that day will be at 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 o'clock.

BEAUTIFY P. O. GROUNDS

Ray F. Weirick, Landscape Architect, to Set Trees and Shrubs Around Government Building.

Ray F. Weirick, the landscape architect for the Wragg Nursery company of Des Moines, Ia., commenced work this morning on beautifying the grounds around the postoffice building by the planting of shrubs and trees. The planting list includes: tamarix, dogwood, bridal wreath, smoke tree, staghorn sumac, Russian olive, purple barberry, bush honeysuckle, Jap barberry, green barberry, white elm, golden elder, high bush cranberry and building vines, Boston ivy.

When the work is completed it will add greatly to the appearance of the grounds, and the building of the government here.

The government buildings at other towns, as Boonville, Brookfield, Cape Girardeau, Carrollton, Carthage, Independence, Marshall, Mexico, Poplar Bluff, Rolla and Warrensburg in Missouri are the only ones that will beautify their grounds.

NORWAY ANSWERS GERMANY

Authorities Send Note to Berlin—Events of Great Importance Hinge on Outcome.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Copenhagen, Oct. 31.—Norway's long xpected reply to Germany's submarine protest has been formulated and sent to Berlin, according to a Christiania dispatch. Events of mighty importance depend upon the negotiations between the two countries, as one of the results might be the entrance of another nation—Norway—into the war. It is understood that Norway contends that she accorded Germany the same treatment as the other belligerents. Germany in turn protests against Norway's decree barring German submarines from entering her territory waters.

COL. ATWOOD COMING

KANSAS CITY ORATOR TO CLOSE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

BOTH PARTIES ARE BUSY

Republicans Are Making Tour of Eastern Part of County Today—Democratic Meeting Parnell Tonight.

Local Democrats are keeping up a strenuous campaign in the interest of the national, state and county ticket in Nodaway county, and meetings are being held every evening over the county. The sentiment is undoubtedly pointing to a good Democratic majority for the entire ticket.

A good sized crowd attended the Democratic meeting held in Ravenwood last night, when L. V. Stigall, president of the Monroe club of St. Joseph was the speaker. Mr. Stigall made a fine speech on Democratic issues.

The meeting for this evening is in Parnell, when Mr. Stigall and some of the county candidates will speak. A number from Maryville are planning to attend. A meeting will also be held at Pickering this evening with Charles McCaffrey as the speaker.

On Wednesday night Judge A. B. Duncan of St. Joseph will speak at Clearmont, and Mr. Stigall at Guilford.

W. A. Blagg will speak at Skidmore on Thursday night and Charles McCaffrey the same night at Graham.

John Parkinson of St. Joseph will be the speaker at a meeting in Burlington Junction on Friday night. This same night a meeting will be held in Quitman with M. E. Ford and Ellis G. Cook as the speakers.

The speaking campaign will close with Saturday's meetings. Col. John H. Atwood of Kansas City will address the voters at Hopkins at 4 o'clock that afternoon and in the evening will speak in Maryville at the court house. Judge Charles H. Mayer of St. Joseph will be the speaker for the meeting at Conception Junction Saturday night.

The Republican Meetings.

The Republicans are also busy during this last week before the election. A tour of the western part of the county, with A. M. Hyde and Dr. Jacob Geiger, as the speakers, was made yesterday, closing with a night meeting at Graham. The Republicans are touring the eastern part of the county today with Mr. Hyde as the main speaker, Dr. Geiger having speaking dates elsewhere for today. This tour will end at Barnard this evening, when a night meeting will be held with Mr. Hyde as the main speaker.

The Republicans will hold a meeting at Elmo on Friday night and M. E. Otis of St. Joseph will be the speaker.

The closing speaking meeting of the Republicans will be held Saturday afternoon at the court house, and Judge S. P. Spencer of St. Louis and A. W. Brewster of Kansas City will talk.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Boston, Oct. 31.—Senator Lodge declined to enter a reply to President Wilson's denial of the Lusitania postscript charges. President Wilson last night characterized as "untrue" the statement made by Senator Lodge to the effect that the president had seriously considered adding a weakening postscript to his Lusitania note.

Is the United States Senatorship for Sale?

Two men are contending for the honor of representing Missouri in the United States Senate. Senator Reed is being opposed by Walter S. Dickey of Kansas City.

Dickey is a multi-millionaire.

He is distinguished alone for his ability to make money.

He is the head of a great number of sewer pipe and tile factories located in various parts of the United States.

His holdings are so extensive that in the middle west he virtually dominates the market, and fixes the prices which the farmer and builder must pay for tile and drain pipe and other clay products. He has been very active in securing the use of his materials in cities and has had many fat contracts, and has accumulated an enormous fortune.

Dickey now desires to go to the United States Senate. If he did not have the money he would not be thought of in connection with any important office.

The irony of his race against Reed is a fine example of the irony of politics.

When President Wilson declared there was a lobby infesting Washington Reed was practically selected as the lawyer of the investigating committee. He went to New York and secured possession of the celebrated Mulhall letters, which disclosed the indubitable evidence that:

(1). A lobby existed in Washington.

(2). That its head was a concern bearing the misnomer "National Manufacturers' Association."

That institution kept regular offices in Washington, and employed the notorious Mulhall, and other agents to carry out its evil purposes. It spied upon members of Congress. It opposed all remedial legislation, especially that intended for the benefit of the laboring classes. It sent its money and its agents into congressional districts for the purpose of corrupting and misleading the electorate.

The investigation of the institution disclosed such outrageous practices that public opinion compelled it to close its lobby office, and move out of the capital.

Reed's work was so forceful that the President personally congratulated him upon it.

And now appears the irony. The Walter S. Dickey Clay Manufacturing Company (which is in fact the Hon. Walter S. Dickey's business name), was a member of the lobby that operated under the name of the "National Manufacturers' Association."

Missourians are now presented with the spectacle of a member of the lobby which Reed drove out of Washington contesting for Reed's seat in the senate. Let the people decide the question.

Dickey's money is being extensively used to promote his candidacy.

In nearly every county paper you will find during this campaign the first insertion of an expensive advertisement of Dickey's products, and generally in the same paper will be found effusive editorial praise of Walter S. Dickey, the candidate.

The device of paying for political support under a pretext of advertising is very old, but it probably will be found to be within the provisions of the federal corrupt practices act.

However that may be, let the people know the facts.—Hannibal Morning Journal.

MAY CAST A BALLOT

VOTERS OUT OF TOWN ON DAY CAN CAST BALLOT.

LOSE VOTE IF OUT STATE

Very Many Have Been Inquiring About the Missouri "Absent Voting Statute."

If you are out of town on election day you can take advantage of the absentee voters' act—that is, providing you are somewhere in the state of Missouri. If you are in some other state, you lose your vote.

Questions bearing on the foregoing points have been asked and answered hundreds of times at the court house within the last week. Some have expressed surprise that Missouri's "absent voting statute," passed in 1913, is limited in its operations to the state.

The statute is reported to be rather ambiguous as to language, but leading lawyers have construed it to mean that a voter who is absent from his own city or county on election day may apply at any polling place within the state, and there, after making affidavit in prescribed form as to his qualifications, may cast his ballot for county, district and state officers, members of the legislature, members of congress, and electors for president and vice president of the United States. But to cast such a vote the absentee must be at some polling place in Missouri.

Supreme Court Decision.

This is based on a decision of the Missouri supreme court, July 3, 1916, in the case of Straughan against Myers, appealed from St. Louis.

Another feature of the situation is that the absentee voter, if he expects to vote for county and district nominees, must provide himself before leaving home with their names and a list of the offices to which they aspire, as the chances are very much against such information being available at the polling places where he offers to vote. Sample ballots having this information in concise form may be had at the office of the county clerk.

The county clerk also will provide the voter who expects to be absent on election day with a form of affidavit to which he must subscribe when he casts his ballot.

Must Be Signed by Judges.

The law provides that after the ballot is cast it shall be signed by all the judges of the precinct where cast and

U-BOAT SITUATION

SINKING OF MARINA AND ROWANMORE BRINGS GRAVE CRISIS.

BERNSTORFF TALKS OF IT

Ambassador Says That Germany Will Not Change Submarine Policy—Seeks Explanation Elsewhere.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Oct. 31.—The United States embassy began an investigation into the sinking of the Marina and Rowanmore, and already the admiralty has turned over certain facts to the embassy for transmission to Washington. It is not yet officially established how many Americans, if any, lost their lives.

Fifty-two more survivors of the Marina have landed, Consul Frost reports. There were probably some fatalities among the Americans.

Destruction of the British steamer Marina by a German submarine, without warning, with possible loss of American lives, and the endangering of the lives of seven American citizens in the submarine attack on the British freighter Rowanmore, contain possibilities of reviving the submarine issue between the United States and Germany.

Ambassador Discusses Sinking.

Washington, Oct. 31.—In connection with the sinking of the Marina and Rowanmore, Ambassador Bernstorff of Germany this afternoon issued the following exclusively for the International News Service:

"There is no intention on the part of the German government to change her submarine policy. She has every intention of keeping her pledge to

SERBS AID IN DOBRUDGA

Russo-Rumanian and Serbian Troops Open Offensive Against Mackensen-Fighting at Verdun.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Rome, Oct. 31.—Heavy reinforcements of the Austrian troops are arriving for the final defense of Trieste, the Italian war office announced. An unusual number of troop trains were observed arriving in the district north of that city. Heavy artillery duels reported from the upper Buy and Giulie front.

New Drive Against Mackensen.

Zurich, Oct. 31.—An army of three hundred thousand men has opened an offensive against Mackensen in Dobrudja, a Bucharest dispatch says. Fighting is in progress on a thirty-mile front from Serai to a point near Tariurni.

Another Engagement in Dobrudja.

London, Oct. 31.—Another great engagement has developed in Dobrudja, and the Russians and Rumanians have been reinforced by column of Serb troops, a Rome wireless says. Heavy Rumanian forces are carrying on guerrilla warfare in Rumanian mountains and the Germans have lost about one-fourth of their men.

Violent Action at Verdun.

Paris, Oct. 31.—Big guns were fired all night on the Verdun front and a violent artillery duel took place on Fort Douaumont-Fort Vaux line. There were no infantry actions. The French occupied Singieri on the Macedonian front and the French and Serbians now attacking in concert.

To Protect Archangel Traffic.

Stockholm, Oct. 31.—England reported to have sent a squadron of warships to the Arctic to protect the Archangel traffic from Germany.

Weather Interferes.

Vienna, Oct. 31.—Storms are interfering the operations on the Italian front, the war office reported.

VIRGINIA "DRY" TODAY

Ranks of Prohibition States Will Be Increased to Eighteen—Churches Preparing to Celebrate.

Virginia will enter the ranks of prohibition states at midnight today, swelling the total to eighteen. For all practical purposes, however, the state will be dry before tonight, as liquor houses are rapidly disposing of their stocks.

Churches and temperance bodies throughout the state are preparing to celebrate the wiping out of the liquor traffic in Virginia with "watch" services.

Although the law makes the possession of liquor in certain quantities prima facie evidence of intent to violate the statute, large supplies are being laid in by individuals. This feature of the law, it is expected, will soon meet with a test in court.

The dry states now are Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Washington, West Virginia, Virginia.

LA FOLLETTE ON THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW.

Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, the only Republican senator to vote for the eight-hour law, in a signed editorial in the September issue of his magazine, defends the passage of the above law and endorses the sentiments of President Wilson's speech at Shadow Lawn, Saturday, the 23rd.

Says the senator:

"The eight-hour law is not a force bill. The railway employes demanded an eight-hour day from the railroads. They made no demand on congress. As was their right, they set a day to quit work in case their demand was refused. Then the railroads inaugurated a strike against the public. They refused to accept freight for shipment, especially perishable goods, in many parts of the country. They spent tremendous sums of money in an effort to influence public sentiment, and this money must eventually come out of the pockets of the people. The strike meant appalling disaster to farmers, to fruit growers, great damage to all business, including the railroads.

"The president was not successful in averting the disaster, the railroad managers being particularly obstinate and refusing to concede the principle of the eight-hour day. The president put the matter up to congress, and congress, considering only the public good, acted in the public interest. It was not forced by any demands of the workingmen or of the railroads. The public interest demanded immediate action, and congress acted and passed the law. Every Wisconsin representative present voted for the bill, and I believe they were right in doing so. I believe in the eight-hour day.

"Did congress act without due consideration? The question of the eight-hour day for skilled labor was not new. Every congressman alive to the issues of the day must have been familiar with the subject.

"When the sixteen-hour limitation for railroad employes was under consideration it was met by the same argument made against the eight-hour law. Railroads and some other large employers are slow to learn, but experience has abundantly shown that for the trades, professions and crafts where skill, courage and caution are required the eight-hour day is the maximum of efficiency."

HIS FRIEND HURT; HE HELPED HIM

Injured Man Laughed When Simple Treatment Was Suggested, But He Thanked His Comrade Later.

Once upon a time word came to Henry A. Voehl, of Plainfield, N. J., that a close friend had been injured, and full of anxiety he visited the afflicted man, who was suffering from a sprained ankle.

"It was so bad that the leg had turned black," said Mr. Voehl in relating the story. "I told him I would have him out in a week and he laughed at me. But I took him a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, that night he put some on and noticed the ankle felt better. I told him to use it every day, and in three days his ankle was practically well. In four days he was working. He gladly admits that Sloan's Liniment "put him on his feet."

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

T. R. RECEIVES FROST, DESPITE POLICE AID

Wilkes-Barre Miners Strong for Wilson—Others Bolt the Republican Party.

"If you love me, vote for Hughes," is an injunction that proved too hard a strain on the liking that the 75,000 miners of the Wilkes-Barre district once had for Colonel Roosevelt. He tried it on them, in what was intended to be the biggest labor meeting of the Hughes campaign, and the result was a frost.

Not only did the crowd listen to the Colonel's speech in stony silence, but Wilson enthusiasm threatened to become so boisterous that Mayor Kosek called out the State Constabulary to guarantee Mr. Roosevelt a courteous reception. The Mayor had denied the miners a permit to give a Wilson parade on the night of the Colonel's visit, and, when they attempted to violate his order, directed the armed and mounted Constabulary to drive them from the streets.

Colonel Roosevelt's closest friend in Wilkes-Barre, Father J. J. Curran, went out with a reception committee to meet the visitor, but announced that, friendship aside, he had left the Republican party, and was supporting President Wilson.

Another indication of the popular trend in the anthracite coal region is given in a statement by Stephen J. Hughes, city clerk of Hazleton, and a delegate to the Republican national convention in 1912.

"Concerning the unauthorized use of my name as a member of the reception committee for Colonel Roosevelt," says Mr. Hughes, "I wish to state emphatically: I was a volunteer in the trenches in 1912; the war is not over; I have not been taken a prisoner, and I refuse to surrender; I still am fighting for social and industrial justice, and I purpose to fight so long as I live."

Miss Rose Wilmas, a clerk in the Eversole Dry Goods store, has accepted a position at Parnell as clerk for the Charley Simmons Dry Goods store, and will begin work Monday morning.

A SENATORIAL CONTEST

REED VERSUS DICKEY

The Senatorship is of almost equal importance to the Presidency. President Wilson could have accomplished little or nothing without the support of the Senate and Congress. If a hostile Senate be returned his hands in the net four years will be tied in many ways.

The record of Senator James A. Reed is an open book. For the last six years he has ably represented and eloquenty expounded in the Senate the principles of Democracy.

Little is known to the people of Walter S. Dickey, the Republican nominee. He has never held office, but his public ideals are set forth in the Republican State Campaign Book, in which it is stated at (pages 10 and 11:)

"Those who knew Senator Mark Hana in the days of his dominance believe that Mr. Dickey has many of that great political chieftain's masterful characteristics as a political organizer, and will likewise demonstrate in the Senate his splendid capacity for legislative leadership."

For many years Mr. Dickey has been engaged in business undertakings of magnitude; has accumulated a vast fortune, and is rated as many times a millionaire.

Republicans Nominate Only Millionaires for the Senate.

As Mr. Dickey has no record of public service, and as he has demonstrated none of the usual attributes of a statesman, it is fair to say that his only qualification which commended him to the Republican Party as its candidate was his great wealth. In nominating him that Party has but followed its custom of thirty years in Missouri of nominating for the Senate a mere money-bag.

Millionaire Kerens.

For a long time millionaire R. C. Kerens of St. Louis was the financial angel of the Missouri Republican Party, and with recurring regularity he was given the nomination to the Senate.

Millionaire Niedringhaus.

In 1904, however, at a time when the Republicans controlled the Legislature, another milionaire, Thos. K. Niedringhaus of St. Louis wrested from his fellow millionaire, Mr. Kerens, the Republican nomination.

Some of the followers of the millions of Kerens refused to abide the caucus nomination of Mr. Niedringhaus, and in consequence the Legislature deadlocked on the election of a Senator until the closing hour of the session when Major William Warner, whose capacity and Party service had entitled him from the start to the nomination, was elected.

Millionaire Dickey.

Returning to its custom the Republican Party now presents millionaire Dickey as its candidate for the Senate.

The Dickey Clay Pipe Company, of which candidate Dickey is practically the sole owner, was a member of the American Manufacturers Association, an incorporated lobby maintained for the purpose of controlling legislation at Washington. The exposures made by the notorious Mulhall before the lobby committee of the Senate, of which Senator James A. Reed was the head, resulted in the expulsion of the lobby from Washington, and a dissolution of the Association.

Missouri is now presented with the disgraceful spectacle of a member of that lobby association contesting for the seat of Senator Reed, the man who played so important a part in destroying the lobby.

Mr. Dickey is a reactionary Republican of the old stand-pat school. If elected he will at once align himself with such men as Boies Penrose, Reed Smoot, and Henry Cabot Lodge. He would never be found voting with LaFollette, Cummins, Kenyon and other Republicans of liberal views.

He would be known as a mere millionaire member of the Senate; his voice not heard in debate. He could always be depended upon to vote in the interest of aggregated wealth.

Senator Reed has demonstrated his legislative capacity; he received the thanks and commendation of President Wilson for his work in the framing of the Federal Reserve Bank Act; he exposed the lobby; he was selected by his colleagues to make the principle argument on the Shipping Bill; he was in the lead in the fight for all beneficial labor legislation; he assisted in preventing the strike which would have been as disastrous as war; he has been on the side of the people in all of the remedial legislation enacted during the administration of President Wilson.

Missourians, irrespective of party, should not hesita contest between Senator Reed and Mr. Dickey.

"VOTE AS AMERICANS"— FOR WILSON, SAYS EDISON

No Time Now to Try an Inexperienced Man, Declares Inventor, Lauding President.

By GEORGE CREEL.

"Times are too serious to talk in terms of Republicanism or Democracy. Parties are all right, reckon we've got to have them with our system of government. But when it's America that's at stake, men have got to vote as Americans, and not as Democrats or Republicans."

This is the message to the American people that Thomas A. Edison gave to me in a recent interview.

"This man Wilson has had a mighty hard time of it," he continued. "I don't believe there was ever a president who had as many big questions to decide. They have come in bunches. He hasn't always pleased me, just as I suppose he hasn't always pleased other people, but when you look the record over, it's so good that criticism comes close to being nothing more than cheap fault finding.

"A fool or a coward would have had the United States in all sorts of trouble. As it is, we are at peace, the country was never more prosperous, and we have the strength that comes with honor and integrity of purpose.

"Had we recognized Huerta, it would have served notice upon the world that the United States, while believing in democracy for home use, was willing to stand for despotism where other peoples were concerned. President Wilson's Mexican policy has been wise and just and courageous.

"Belgium? Hindsight! In the light of two years, it's easy to say what should have been done. But at the time, not a single paper or a public man even thought of anything but keeping the United States out of the European horror.

"As I said at the start, it has just been one big thing after another with Wilson. I never have known so many dangerous questions brought up for decision to any one President.

"Look at the threatened general railroad strike. If carried through, such a strike would have thrown the whole country into confusion.

"In my opinion, Mr. Hughes, if President, would have found it difficult to decide on the best course for the Government to take in such matters. His capacity for hindsight, as we learn from his speeches, is highly developed, but as to his foresight, we are not equally well informed.

"They say Wilson has blundered. Perhaps he has. But I notice that he usually blunders forward.

"Mr. Wilson now has had about four years of experience, and I think that he has earned faith and trust. I do not think it a sensible thing to change to an inexperienced and untried man. Therefore, I am for Woodrow Wilson."

"THE STRENGTH OF THE WEAK."

Mary Fuller, Popular Actor, Appears in Film at Fern Theater.

The news that Mary Fuller has joined the ranks of Bluebird Photoplayers will be hailed with delight by devotees of the screen who have found such excellence in all of the Bluebird features that have been shown since this splendid series was first introduced a few weeks ago. That Miss Fuller will appear at the Fern tonight in "The Strength of the Weak" will be cause for immediate rejoicing among the hundreds of local "picture fans" who have made her their favorite.

Mary Fuller has been popularly acclaimed as "Our Mary" by millions of theatergoers, from coast to coast, who find their best entertainment at the moving picture houses. It is therefore certain that a brief sketch of Miss Fuller's career will be read with great interest by those who have never seen her achievements recorded in print.

She was born in Washington, D. C., of American parents, and her mother is still living in the national capital. Her father is dead. "Our Mary" is the only one of four girls in the Fuller family to enter the theatrical profession.

When quite a child, Mary showed marked tendencies toward the art of mimicry and would steal away from her playmates to "act" before the cracked mirror in the garret of the little house in which she and her family lived.

While still in her "teens" she went to New York determined to enter upon a theatrical career, securing her first position in a minor capacity in a small traveling company that soon reached the termination of its brief journeying.

Becoming discouraged with life upon the stage she decided to apply for a position as an "extra" in one of the moving picture studios in spite of the fact that at that time most professionals considered it "degrading" to enter the movies.

The consequent result is that Mary Fuller is now the most famous screen actress on earth. She was with the Edison company, who featured her in thousands of plays which were shown in every civilized country on the globe. Some few months ago she joined the forces of the Universal and just lately has again changed companions, for the purpose of appearing as a Bluebird star in "The Strength of the Weak." This photoplay is based upon a stage version which was originally introduced by Florence Roberts and scored great favor during a long run in New York and for several seasons on tour throughout the country.

SECTIONALISM CRY REACTS ON HUGHES

G. O. P. Candidate Is Mocked by Record of His Own Party in Congress.

LAWS ENACTED ARE FOR ALL

On Its Achievements Administration Invites Judgment as to Whether Its Work Is Sectional in Its Scope and Purpose.

Charles E. Hughes has raised the cry of sectionalism, complaining to his Western audiences because the important Committee Chairmanships in the House and Senate have been filled—this being due to seniority promotions—by Southern members.

"During the last year of Republican control there was not a committee chairmanship from the South," replies Congressman James B. Aswell in his speech reported in the Congressional Record. "Was that nationalism or blind, ignorant partisanship?" he asks.

"Let the people decide," he suggests, "whether the following great measures enacted by this so-called South-controlled Congress are sectional or national:

"The Underwood Tariff Law, just to the consumer as against the special privileged class, followed by a non-partisan tariff commission removing the tariff question from politics.

"The Income Tax Law, causing the rich to pay their just proportion of the expenses of the Government.

"The Rural Credits Law, the first legislation solely for the farmers.

"The establishment of rural routes, the extension of the parcel post, and better mail service for our rural population.

"The Good Roads Law for all sections and for all our people.

"Farm extension laws, including Smith-Lever Act, grain and cotton standards, regulating cotton futures, and so forth.

"Numerous just labor laws, the most beneficial in a century by the American Congress.

"The Child Labor Law for the children of the whole country and for civilization.

"The Federal Reserve Act, giving an elastic currency and preventing financial panics—the greatest act ever passed in the history of our Government.

"Conservation acts for the people as against special interests.

"Anti-trust laws and arbitration laws, preventing special-interest control.

"Shipping act for open markets for our products and commercial mastery of the seas.

"Federal Trade Commission Act, protecting the individual as against the vested interests.

"The Seamen's Law for the workmen, and public safety.

"Legislation supporting the President in keeping us out of the European war while maintaining peace with honor to the American flag.

"Mr. Speaker, for the sake of the great dignity of the high office he seeks and in the name of common decency, let Mr. ex-Justice Hughes specify and name the sectional measures in the above list and mention those he would repeal!"

BURBANK OUT FOR WILSON, "THE GREATEST STATESMAN"

Announcing his support of President Wilson, Luther Burbank, the horticulturist wizard of California, said:

"I believe him to be the greatest statesman we have ever had."

Mr. Burbank, the Edison of scientific horticulture, declared that without reserve he endorsed the position announced a week earlier by Thomas A. Edison. Both Burbank and Edison have been life-long Republicans. Edison put it this way:

"Times are too serious to talk in terms of Republicanism or Democracy. When it's America that is at stake men have got to vote as Americans. A fool or a coward would have had the United States in all sorts of trouble. As it is, we are at peace, the country was never more prosperous, and we have the strength that comes with honor and integrity of purpose."

Bantz-Tipping Wedding.

The following, taken from the Marshall Democrat-News, tells of the wedding of Dr. R. L. Bantz, a former Maryville young man:

A wedding that has been looked forward to with much interest on account of the prominence of the contracting parties and the arrangements in progress for the new home to be established in our city was that of Dr. R. L. Bantz and Miss Dora M. Tipping. It will probably be a surprise to the friends of the bride and groom to know that they were married Tuesday, Oct. 24, at St. Joseph. Rev. B. T. Wharton the officiating minister.

The couple left Marshall Tuesday morning on the Hummer and arrived at their destination, the home of Rev. B. T. Wharton and family, in due time and the ceremony was said at high noon Tuesday. The only guest present in addition to the immediate family was Mrs. Marvin Cary, nee Miss Vardeman, formerly of Marshall, but now of St. Joseph. A beautiful luncheon was served by Mrs. Wharton immediately after the ceremony, in honor of the doctor and his bride.

The latter wore a becoming blue broadcloth street toilet, with hat and gloves ensuit. The bride and groom left St. Joseph Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Chicago, where they will be a week or more before returning to Marshall. The doctor has had a cozy cottage on North Jefferson in preparation for his bride for several weeks and they will go immediately to housekeeping on their return.

The bride, who was born and reared in Marshall, is one of our home angels, whose influence has been a blessing to parents, brothers and sisters and will no doubt continue to be in the new home established. Practical, strong in character, gentle and winsome in disposition and, best of all, good and womanly, she will indeed be a true helpmate, and the groom is to be congratulated. He is not so well known as the bride, but during his residence here has proven himself worthy of the prize he has won, and has made a great many warm friends, professionally and socially, who will join those of the bride in congratulations and best wishes.

Farnell Young Folks Celebrate Hallowe'en.

Wilson hall at Farnell was changed into a haunt of ghosts and witches last night when thirty-six boys and girls gathered there to celebrate Hallowe'en. The first event of the evening was a mock ghost wedding, in which Miss Christie Waldeier acted as bride and Rex Lincoln was the bridegroom. The attendants were Miss Hazel Miller and Troy Bloomfield. The officiating ghost minister was Port Evans. After the wedding the rest of the evening was spent in listening to music on the victrola and in playing games in honor of the bridal party. Lunch was served cafeteria style at the close of the evening. Those present were: Misses Matie Evans, Rosetta Klaas, Lena Foland, Barbara Waldeier, Zoa Dinsmore, Lena, Dora and Hazel Miller, Agnes Klaas, Marie Berg, Bessie Stoner, Ella Farrell, Lula and Mertie Hutchison, Chrisde Waldeier, Lottie Bird, Margaret Bremer, Elma Martin, Henry Klaas, Martin Farrell, Leo Berg, Harry Freemyer, Clarence Mullock, Elias Echterlin, Forbes Starr, Virgil Spoonemore, Port Evans, Troy Bloomfield, Rex Lincoln, Harlan Herndon and Noble Klaas.

Wolfers-Jackson Wedding.

Westport Methodist church of Kansas City was the scene of a quiet wedding last Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Docia Jackson of Hardy, Ark., became the bride of Fred Robert Wolfers of Maryville. The Rev. W. T. McClure, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister. The guests included only a few intimate friends and near relatives.. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, southern smilax and huge baskets of pink roses with pink tulle bows.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Bischop of Kansas City played two organ solos, Schumann's "Traumerei" and the lovely "Venetian Love Song." Miss Gladys Swarthout, also of Kansas City next sang "O Promise Me," which was followed by the Lohengrin wedding march. The first of the bridal party to enter was Dr. McClure, followed by the bridegroom and his best man, Roy Wolfers, walking together to the altar. The bride's only attendant was her matron of honor, Mrs. Roy Wolfers, who next appeared, wearing midnight blue broadcloth with trimmings of otter fur, large gold lace hat and boots and gloves to harmonize. Her corsage bouquet was of deep pink Sawyer rosebuds and valley lilies.

The bride followed very charmingly

STATE APPLE YIELD LARGE

The Output for 27 Years is Valued at 126 Millions—This Year's Crop is Short.

Missouri's apples in twenty-seven years, ending with the close of 1915, brought to the horticulturists of the state approximately $126,718,500. That sum represents the value of 84,479,000 barrels, at the wholesale price of $1.50 a barrel, announces a bureau of labor statistics bulletin, issued today by Commissioner John T. Fitzpatrick. Reduced to bushels and allowing three bushels to the barrel, the apple output amounted to 233,437,000 bushels.

Unfavorable weather conditions have reduced the 1916 crop of Missouri apples to approximately 2,700,000 barrels. The 1910 federal census revealed there were 14,359,673 apple bearing trees in the state, scattered over 102 counties.

The Gentry County Club of the Normal took a hike to Pickering Saturday morning and came back on the Burlington at 4:45 p. m. Monday afternoon, after this announcement the foot ball squad was considerably swelled in numbers. If the second string men can take a trip occasionally it surely ought to add "pep" and ginger to the whole squad.

STARS IN SCHOOL WORK

Ralph McClintock Demonstrates Ability In Other Lines Besides Athletics—Has Patrons' Club.

Ralph McClintock, better known to us as "Pigiron," former Normal basket ball star, is not only a star in athletics but also in school management. While Clearmont high school has not a sufficiently large enrollment to play football, Prof. McClintock is showing what can be done in team work when school management is the game.

A Patrons' club has been formed under Mr. McClintock's leadership, and from this club a committee has been appointed to visit the school at any time and to offer any suggestions. He has thrown down the bars and the patrons are asked to tell what they want and they will get it. The Clearmont schools have what is considered one of the best faculties in this part of the country. Four former Normal students are teaching at Clearmont at present. They are: Ralph McClintock, Miss Myrtle McPherron, Miss Edith Holt and Miss Blanche Criswell.

Friday afternoon the business houses of Clearmont closed and 250 of the public school patrons gathered at the school grounds, where the following program was given:

May pole drill by primary.

Ribbon drill by intermediate.

Drill by primary.

Flying Dutchman (game), by everybody.

Immediately following the following program was given indoors:

Piano solo by Eula McDermott.

Oration by Thomas Olds.

Declamation by Eva Miller.

Vocal solo by Helen Miller.

Vocal solo by Helen Burch.

Talk by Prof. Swinehart of the State Normal school.

A patrons' club was then formed with the following officers: Myrtle McPherron, president; Mrs. Charles Smith, vice president; Mrs. Watts, vice president; Mrs. A. H. Garrett, treasurer, and Miss Blanche Criswell, secretary. The visiting committee is composed of Mrs. Wiley, Miss Ollie Carpenter, Mrs. Edith Linebaugh.

Brother Benedict of Conception was in Maryville today on business.

Nealy Mossey of Clyde was in Maryville yesterday on business.

Raymond Owens of Omaha visited over Sunday at the home of C. A. Aley.

Miss Blanche Wallace returned Sunday night from Clearmont after a few days visit to her sister, Mrs. Charles Smith.

Disobeying Orders.

The porter of a small hotel being attacked by illness while on duty his kind employer sent him upstairs to bed and called a physician. When the doctor came down after having attended his patient the proprietor accosted him.

"Well, doctor, how did you find him?" he asked.

"He's coming down with the grip," was the doctor's reply.

"If he does I'll send him back to bed. I warned him not to lug any more baggage today."—Exchange.
